

THE RED STABLES SUMMER SCHOOL

July 2013 | Events at a Glance

The Red Stables Art and Ecology Summer School takes place in St. Anne's Park, Dublin 3 and North Bull Island, a UNESCO protected biosphere reserve. There will be free events including workshops, presentations, film screenings, walks and talks during July. For information and bookings contact red.stables@dublincity.ie or 01 222 7377.

« Talks and Walks »

- 5 July: 'Biosphere Interactions', 4:00pm at the Red Stables
- Fergus Kelly, sound artist, on 'Wildlife Sound Recording' with Chris Watson in Iceland.
 - Méadhbh O'Connor, artist, undertaking an Art and Science residency at UCD: 'A Dialogue on the Values of Nature' with
 - Dr. Tamara Hochstrasser, Lecturer at the UCD School of Biology and Environment Science.
 - Fiona McDonald, artist and architect, 'Mapping Place', a temporary intervention on Bull Island based on Captain Bligh's proposal for the North Bull Wall in the early 1800s.
- 15 July: Brendan Sayers, Orchid Specialist at the Botanic Gardens, an 'Orchid Walk' with the Irish Orchid Society, departing from Bull Island Interpretive Centre at 6:30pm; limited to fifteen attendees.

« Workshops »

- 16–17 July: Rhona Byrne, Vaari Claffey, Ciara Moore, 'The Interpretive Project Workshops', ringing programs, costume making and rehearsals. At the Red Stables from 2:00–5:00pm.
- 18 July: Jenny Brady, 'Natural Kinds', talks by Brendan Sayers and Dr. Niall Connolly, and screenings with Donna Haraway, Paper Tiger TV and Jenny Brady. At the Red Stables from 2:00–5:00pm.

« Commissioned Artworks »

- 20 July: Rhona Byrne, Vaari Claffey, Ciara Moore, 'The Interpretive Project', a participatory performance; meet at the Bull Island Interpretive Centre at 3:00pm.
- 20–31 July: Jenny Brady, 'Carve Up', film screening, The Red Stables Gallery, St. Anne's Park. Shown between 12:00–5:00pm daily.

The Red Stables Summer School 2013 is curated by Seán O Sullivan and Denise Reddy.